++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and initially sunny, then clouding over.

Today:
After a bright start for most, cloud will gradually move in from the east. Cloudy by the afternoon, but western areas retain some sunny spells. Southeastern areas may get a few showers in the afternoon, but otherwise dry. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying dry overnight. The thicker cloud will clear towards the northeast, allowing clear spells to develop in its wake. Light winds. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Saturday:
A mostly dry day with sunny spells and fair-weather cloud. Western areas may see a few showers. Becoming cloudy later before heavy showers move in overnight. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Showers continuing into Sunday with the potential for thunder. Heavy showers on Monday as well. Drier on Tuesday, though still cloudy.
